THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMB. 23.

THE WITCHERY OF MANNER - Almost every man can recall scores of cases within his knowledge where pleasing manners; have made the fortune of lawyers, dectors, divines, merchants, and, in short, men in every walk of life. Raleigh, as we have already remarked, flung down his lace coat in the mud for Elizabeth to walk on, and got for his reward a proud queen's favor. The politician who has this advantage easily distances all rival cand dates, for every voter he speaks with becomes instantly his friend. The very tones in which he asks for a pinch of souff, are often more potent than the logic of a Webster or a Clay. Poished manners have often made secundrels successful, while the best of men, by their hardness and coldness, have done themselves incalculable injury-the shell being so rough that the world could not believe there was a precious kernel within. Civility is to a man what beauty is to a woman. It creek s an instantaneous impres sion in his behalf, while the opposite quality exercises as quick a prejudice against him. It is a real ornament—the most beautiful dress that's man or woman can wear-and worth more a means of winning favor than the fluest clothes and jewels ever word. The gruffest man loves to be appreciated; and it is oftener the sweet smile of a woman, which we think intended for us alone, than a pair of Juno-like eyes, or "lips that seem on roses fed," that bewitches our heart, and lays us low at the feet of her whom we afterward marry.—Prof. Matthews' "Get ting on in the World."
